Boston, May 27, 1836.

At a meeting of several anti-slavery friends in the Vestry of the Rev. Mr. Blagden's meeting-house on Wednesday afternoon, (among whom were Messrs. Southwick, Farnsworth, May, Winslow, Elizur Wright, Jr. Knapp, Whittier, Garrison, &c.) Rev. Mr. Grosvenor made a full statement of his present situation and wants to the meeting — on which it was Voted, That Messrs. Southwick, Farnsworth and Garrison be a committee to consult with Mr. Wright, the Cor. Sec. of the Parent Society, respecting the case of Mr. Grosvenor.

At a meeting of the Committee, the following arrangement was unanimously agreed to by the Committee and Mr. Wright:—

That Mr. Grosvenor be appointed an Agent of the American Anti-Slavery Society for the ensuing year;—

That the sum of $300 be granted to him in advance payment of his salary, to relieve him from pressing embarrassments — provided any individuals, who have pledged that amount to the National Society, are disposed to pay it into the hands of Mr. G. immediately, which the Committee recommend — Mr. G. giving a receipt, & an order for the same on ~~behalf of~~ the National Society, which receipt shall release said individuals from further responsibility to the National Society.
